

Siegfried as winner of HFM Asian Performance Award 2022

1st December 2022

Dear investors and friends,

In October, one of Siegfried funds, namely the VTeam Siegfried Supply Chain Finance Fund – nicknamed “SCP5” – was nominated by HFM for a best performing hedge fund award in the category of Specialist Finance and Credit. With a humble heart, I would like to share the exciting news that our fund was declared the winner at the HFM Asian Performance Awards ceremony held at Shangri-La Singapore last night on 30th November 2022.

HFM, alongside EurakaHedge, is a database serviced by With Intelligence providing industry intelligence and research on global alternative investment and managers. You can learn more about With Intelligence at their website: <http://withintelligence.com>

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to our investors, partners, service providers, and especially to our diligent team members. We shall continue to strive to deliver our best efforts to continue to deliver superior performance.
